A Rich Claim.

George R. Thompson left over the Union Pacific yesterday morning for Denver, Col., where he has gone to look up some mining interests. Mr. Thompson has been prospecting around Ogden for the last three months in search of the wealth hidden in months in search of the wealth hidden in the Wasatch range. In an interview with him at the depot before his departure, the reporter learned that he had been successful in his enterprise, and he stated that within eight miles from the center of the city was a very rich vein of gold ore twenty feet in width which he can trace for a distance of a mile. This is good news to the people of Oeden, and should Mr. Thompson be suc-cessful in getting his claim developed it cessful in getting his claim developed it will be followed by further investigations.

Judge Preshaw disposed of the following cases at the police station vesterday:

sad tragedy occurred at the Hot Springs last Tuesday night, as the regular springs train was about to return to this city. A young cowboy with an overdose of tanglefoot entered several cars, as if in search of someone and then stepped off on the east side of the rear coach and began to tion of the course of the bullet, but at last reports it was not thought best to probe for the ball as it had entered some very tender portions of the body and may yet prove fatal, as the bullet took a downward course after entering the shoulder and lodged near the heart.

The man that did the shooting is reported of medium height, smooth face, light hair, and will weigh about one hundred and fifty pounds.

The Reform School Boys.

The boys who escaped from the reform school and were captured by Sheriff Belpap were brought before Judge Cross yesterday on the charge of grand larceny and bound over in $500 bonds, in default of which they were placed in the hands of the sheriff to await the action of the grand

In their attempt to escape they took a horse and buggy from a little girl who was driving along the road, thinking they could get out of the way of the officers faster by that means. But it proved to be a trap for them, as they were soon overtaken.

The Missouri Editors.

Yesterday afternoon representatives from the leading papers of Ogden and Salt Lake went to the hot spings to meet the excursion Missouri editors who came from the north on the regular Utah & Western train. The delegation was composed of E. G. Woolley of the Ogden Standard, Lewis H. Eddy of the Ogden Dessorat, C. J. Pettee of the Ogden Union, C. A. Carns of the Salt Lake Tribino, and a Herain reperier. The names of the excursionists are given below, with the tittle of the paper they represent.
